DivorceCare is a special weekly seminar and support group for people who are separated or divorced, where you can be around others who understand the complex feelings and experiences that are common in this recovery. Our Fall 2024 launch for DivorceCare is Wed., Sep. 4, 6:30-7:30. Our weekly meetings are led by Jennifer Gotcher and include education and discussion about healing from the hurt of separation or divorce, as well as a time to gain support.

For more information or to register, please visit mrcc.org/care or contact tasha.hodges@mrcc.org.

SERMON INFO

Like stars in the sky

When Jesus tells us to love our enemies, what does He expect us to do? In this sermon, Mitch will explore two enemies from the first book of the Bible who happened to be brothers. Listen and find out how to find God near your enemies, especially when they're family.

Tonight, in honor of Labor Day weekend, we'll look at the message of the old song, I Want to Be a Worker for the Lord.

OTHER NOTES
